Astounding Disclosures

The whole country has been surprised by the proof recently brought to light, of a conspiracy on the part of certain democratic politicians, calling themselves conservatives, to secure foreign intervention and such action on the part of the European powers as would compel the National Government to consent to negotiation with the rebels. The evidence of this is found in a recent letter of Lord Lyons, the British Minister to Earl Russell, which we give as follows:

Several of the leaders of the democratic party sought interviews with me, both before and after the arrival of the intelligence of Gen McClellan's dismissal. The subject uppermost in their minds while they were speaking to me was naturally that of foreign mediation between the North and South. Many of them seemed to think that this mediation must come at last, but they appeared to be very much afraid of its coming too soon. It was evident that they apprehended that a premature proposal of foreign intervention would afford the radical party a means of reviving the violent war spirit, and of thus defeating the peaceful plans of the conservatives. They appeared to regard the present moment as peculiarly unfavorable for such an offer, and, indeed, to hold that it would be essential to the success of any proposal from abroad that it should be deferred until the control of the Executive Government should be in the hands of the conservative party.

I have no opinion on the subject. I did not say whether or not I myself thought foreign intervention probable or advisable, but I listened with attention to the accounts given me of the plans and hopes of the conservative party. At the bottom I thought I perceived a desire to put an end to the war, even at the risk of losing the Southern States altogether; but it was plain that it was not thought prudent to avow this desire. Indeed, some hints of it, dropped before the elections, were so ill received that a strong declaration in the contrary sense was deemed necessary by the democratic leaders.

At the present moment, therefore, the chiefs of the conservative party call loudly for a more vigorous prosecution of the war, and reproach the Government with slackness as well as with want of success in its military measures. But they repudiate all idea of interfering with the institutions of the Southern people, or of waging a war of subjugation or extermination. They maintain that the object of the military operations should be to place the North in a position to demand an armistice with honor and with effect. The armistice should (they hold) be followed by a Convention, in which such changes of the Constitution should be proposed as would give the South ample security on the subject of its slave property, and would enable the North and the South to re-unite and to live together in peace and harmony. The conservatives profess to think that the South might be induced to take a part in such a Convention, and that a restoration of the Union would be the result. The more sagacious members of the party must, however, look upon the proposal of a Convention merely as a last experiment to test the possibility of re-union. They are, no doubt, well aware that the more probable consequence of an armistice would be the establishment of Southern independence, but they perceive that if the South is so utterly alienated that no possible concessions will induce it to return voluntarily to the Union, it is wiser to agree to separation than to prosecute a cruel and hopeless war. It is with reference to such an armistice as they desire to attain that the leaders of the conservative party regard the question of foreign mediation, if made to a radical Administration, would be rejected; that if made at an unpropitious moment, it might increase the virulence with which the war is prosecuted. If their own party were in power, or virtually controlled the Administration, they would rather, if possible, obtain an armistice without the aid of foreign Governments, but they would be disposed to accept an offer of mediation if it appeared to be the only means of putting a stop to hostilities. They would desire that the offer should come from the great Powers of Europe conjointly, and in particular that as little prominence as possible should be given to Great Britain.

Though Lord Lyons does not give the names of the infamous traitors who thus sought the humiliation of the nation for political purposes, no one will be at a loss to understand who they are, for this action is entirely consistent with the course of leading Democrats, who, during the last year, have endeavored in every possible way to weaken the power of the Government to sow disaffection among the troops, and to give aid and comfort to the enemy. This new proof of their malignant disloyalty excites throughout the East as well it may, the most intense indignation and contempt for the base scoundrels, who, while the ship of the nation is in deadly conflict with a defiant foe, are secretly devising plans to scuttle her. We trust they may speedily be brought to justice, and meet the deserved penalty of traitors. They are baser and more dangerous than rebels in arms. Living under and enjoying the protection of the Government, they coolly and with predetermined malice are plotting its overthrow, while their mouths are full of swelling words in regard to the Constitution and its preservation. The conservatism of which they boast only protects wickedness and schemes for national ruin. Indeed it is high time that the popular mind was aroused to a full sense of the danger that surrounds and threatens the nation, not from secession alone, but with more imminence from its poorly disguised allies, whose sympathy prompts them to lay plans for foreign wars and domestic ruin. The New York Times thus justly comments upon the extraordinary developments:

What a spectacle! These so called Democratic chiefs seeking an interview, hat in hand, with the Minister of England and craving him to be patient until they got into power, when they would be happy to join with England and the other European powers to put a stop to the war! It is enough to make every American hang his head for shame. We have had a poor opinion of the Copperhead leaders in this State, but we own we were not prepared for this. We would not believe it were not the diplomatic document itself before us as officially printed. We knew that these men were base enough to treat with the Southern rebels on the basis of a division of the Republic, but we did not suppose that even they were capable of going so far as to invite foreign powers to aid them in this sacrilegious work. The other is simple treason, but this is an abjuration of every American feeling. It is not merely a desertion of the Republic but is a groveling at the foot of thrones. It is easy now to see why the Copperheads were so displeased with the peremptory refusal of Secretary Seward to entertain the proffer of mediation. They were not only willing, as we had supposed, that such mediation should take place, but as we had not supposed, had already given the British Minister to understand that they would actually join in it so soon as they found the opportunity. The answer of Seward was a finality. Its unqualified language made it absolutely certain that, whatever might be the party majority in the next Congress, so long as this Administration was in power, no foreign interference or interposition in any shape would be tolerated.—The promising programme which the Copperhead leaders had so humbly submitted to Lord Lyons shriveled to nothing.

Letter from Auburn.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

AUBURN, April 26th, 1863.

Times are becoming more lively to this region, and gold dust makes its appearance in more considerable quantities than heretofore and I notice much difference in the character of the article as it is weighed in merchants' scales. The poorest variety of all comes from Boise; this is not much superior to Salmon dust, but it is to be hoped the quantity will in the end atone for the quality.

The worst of it is, that our Boise neighbors are not contented with having an inferior article, but they send us in occasionally a bogus composition mixed with some genuine, and have thereby palmed off hundreds of dollars worth upon Auburn merchants. The best they have has a dirty look and most anything will pass in its company.

Granite creek too falls below the standard and I think some parts of the Burnt river region afford a poor quality of gold, but the gold found in all this vicinity is of superior quality, and generally very coarse, too.

A speculative mind can find a field for study, to determine why some gulches and streams have washed gold in them, generally smooth, worn and heavy, whilst others, quite near, yield ragged and porous gold, that appears to have never moved from the spot where it melted from the quartz.

Since my last I have visited Burnt river, and am satisfied that rich and extensive mines will keep developing in that and the still more Southern part of Baker county. In fact, extensive mining is already in progress and good pay found, but I also became satisfied that the position of Auburn makes it the key to this mining region and that in and around it lie the best mines, for extent and richness, found in this county. Mines, too, that will last for many years and be productive, whilst the supply of water will necessarily be limited.

By the by, the Canal Company have adopted a very reasonable schedule of water rates, and the miners can afford the prices if the Company can only afford the requisite supply.

I have several times mentioned at some length, the Eagle mountains, and have now to record rich discoveries lately made there. Quite an excitement relative to these mines exists, and many are fitting out for them. These latter discoveries are only forty miles from Auburn, and are liable to the general complaint of no water, though water can be brought there at some trouble.

Wages here are now four dollars per day and plenty of work for good hands and good hands alone are wanted in the mines.

I suppose Auburn, and all this county has as respectable and well ordered a mining population as can be found on the Pacific. All the roughs, without exception, have left for Boise. In fact, Boise must be a paradise for roughs. The tragic events of last November had a very salutary effect.

Some of the streets of Auburn are being ground-sluiced out pretty thoroughly. The upper town is much less popular as a business point than formerly. Many merchants there are migrating to the lower town, which is being rapidly improved. There are much better roads in the valleys and mountains than at this time last year. The streams are not so high and many bad places have been bridged or improved. We shall soon have teams crossing the mountains, and a wagon road opened from the Dalles through to Boise and beyond.

Salt Lake is bound to come in active competition with the Willamette Valley in furnishing provisions to Boise, and perhaps this place, and contracts are said to have been already made for large amounts.

New discoveries are being continually made, and will continue to be made all summer in this country. There is a certain class in every mining camp that cannot bear steady occupation, and leaving their companies to work any diggings they may have, spend the summer prospecting for better, and these men will do so during the present summer, and the floating population which is always rushing around to find the chunks lying about loose will follow in their wake, eager for a look at the latest excitement.

Silver leads, too, are looking up, or rather the prospectors will soon be looking them up and some old hands are confident they can be found within a day's ride of this place.

OREGON CITY ELECTION.—By special dispatch to the Oregonian from Oregon City received at ten o'clock last night, we learn that the election at that place yesterday resulted in the victory of the entire Union ticket. The following named gentlemen were elected: For Mayor, A Warner; Recorder, J E Hanford; Councilmen—F Barclay, J M Barlow, W W Buck, D Harvey, J M Fraser, J Dement, Wm Whitlock; Assessor and Collector, J E Hanford; City Attorney, J D Lacey.

FIELD GUNS FOR WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—The San Francisco Bulletin says: "The steamer Rambler recently brought down from the U S arsenal at Benicia a battery of four large field guns (iron 24 pounders.) With these guns came a sufficiency of balls, shells, etc for service. It is understood that they are to be shipped by the next steamer to Fort Vancouver, W. T."

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 29th.

HEADQUARTERS OF ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, April 28th.—Rumors have been circulating during the last few days that the rebels are beginning to abandon their present position. Nothing definite however is known concerning the movement.

Prisoners are coming in almost daily from the outposts, but their information is conflicting and unsatisfactory.

NEW YORK, April 28.—A special dispatch to the Tribune says: Engineer Wood of the U S Navy, now on duty in connection with the iron clads, has made a proposition to the Secretary of the Navy to the following effect: He offers to take a Monitor up the harbor of Charleston, removing on the way any obstructions that may impede the progress of ships, or if the Department only desires the destruction of Sumter he will accomplish that. A State Senator of California, who enjoys to a large degree the confidence of the Engineer, also offers to accompany Wood on the important expedition named. It is understood that the President and Secretary Welles look upon the proposition with favor, but the decision of the Government is of course not known.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The Richmond Examiner of the 27th contains an advertisement for five laborers, free and white, to work on the fortifications.

The Mexican Minister had an interview with the President to-day, and complained of the unfriendly treatment his country had received in the refusal to permit the shipment of munitions of war on Mexican account, while the French were permitted to buy vessels at New York, St Louis and elsewhere.

NEW YORK, April 28.—A Washington special says: At the instance of foreign bankers agents were four weeks ago sent to Europe to make sale of our bonds authorized to be issued by our last Congress. The last steamer brought news that a large sum will be supplied on Government credit in Hamburg, London and Paris.

Robert J Walker is understood to have sailed on the 8th with full power to perfect arrangements meditated by German agents in March.

NEW YORK, April 29th.—The Tribune's Hilton Head letter, dated 20th inst, represents that the Monitors and the army were ready to move, and adds that they are already moving. It says that before the close of the week the ironclads will be again over the bar at Charleston. The attacks must come off this time in co-operation with the land forces. The rebels are hard at work strengthening their land defences south of Charleston. Troops have been sent to assist them from Savannah.

From Florida we learn that there are no armed rebels east of St John's River. A sufficient force was left to hold St Augustine and Fernandina against any force the rebels can bring against them.

A small craft, supposed to be a gunboat, had escaped from Savannah through Warsaw Sound.

The clerk of the U S Prize Court has run away with $90,000 belonging to the Government.

BALTIMORE, April 28.—Wild stories are afloat of rebel depredations in Western Virginia on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Reliable information states that the guerrillas penetrated to Knowlesville and Altemont, but were driven off before any damage was done. We have also information that the rebels marched westward, and it is believed the movement has been checked by the Federals.

NEW YORK, April 28.—A dispatch in the Washington Star of the 27th, dated Harper's Ferry same day, says information has been received that the rebel Generals Jones and Imboden with a considerable force, are at Moorfield, probably on the way to New Creek, for the purpose of destroying the Baltimore and Ohio railroad in that vicinity.

The Baltimore American of Saturday 25th says rumors of a rebel approach to the Baltimore and Ohio railroad assume a serious aspect.

During Sunday a movement of 8,000 troops was made on the road to strengthen points west of Cumberland. Two regiments left Baltimore to take the place of those moved further west.

On Sunday night two companies of rebel cavalry appeared at Knowlesville, but were driven off and did not succeed in damaging the Cheat river bridge.

A rebel force of 4,000, under Gen Boyd, left Winchester early this week. Measures have been taken to check them.

A rumor has reached here that a rebel force is moving on Wheeling, Va, or Pittsburg, Pa. The rumor rests on the fact that a force appeared at Morgantown on the Monongahela river, near the State line of Pennsylvania. No fears are felt for the safety of either place. It is not probable that the rebels will advance further North.

A Harrisburg (Pa.) dispatch of to-day says many contradictory reports are in circulation relative to the rebel raid. There is no doubt they have taken Morgantown, and occupied it with from four to eight thousand troops, under Jenkins. Our troops are in motion to intercept him and artillery is being sent from Harrisburg.

Another dispatch from Uniontown states that the rebel flag floats over Morgantown, and men women and children are flying in all directions.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad between Cumberland and Grafton was destroyed.

BALTIMORE, April 28th.—Large bodies of troops have been moved to all important points on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad which guarantees ample and permanent protection. It is not believed that work will be delayed twenty four hours on the road.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—A large amount of specie reached Pittsburg from Wheeling last night.

ST JOHNS, N S, April 27th.—The Anglo Saxon from Liverpool with 200 passengers and a crew of 84 men, was wrecked four miles east of Cape Race at noon to-day. Sixty three persons escaped from the wreck by means of ropes and twenty four more by a life boat, making a total of ninety seven saved. Two other boats have not yet arrived at Cape Race in consequence of the fog. Seven men who embarked on a raft are still missing.—There is still a heavy sea fog. The commander is supposed to be among the drowned.—The Purser, first and second officers and surgeon were saved. The deck broke up about one hour after the vessel struck. Several persons clung to the rigging until the foremast fell, but no assistance could be rendered.

PICTOU, N S, April 28th.—The steamer Dauntless picked up two boats this forenoon containing 30 persons. Very clear off this coast to-day.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28th.—Subscriptions to the 5-20 loans yesterday and to-day amount to $2,500,000.

NEW YORK, April 28th.—Stocks firmer. Gold quiet at 49⅛@49½.

ST LOUIS, April 28th.—Gen Vandevere came upon the enemy's rear near Cape Girardeau and attacked and routed him, taking many prisoners, horses, arms, &c. The rebels retreated towards Bloomfield in great disorder, pursued by Vandevere and McNeil.

CAIRO, April 28th.—Advices from Cape Girardeau say all is quiet there. The women and children who had escaped into Illinois were returning. The rebels were in full retreat on the Bloomfield road, with McNeil in close pursuit. It was McNeil's intention to send a force to the enemy's rear for the purpose of destroying the bridge over the river, thus cutting off his retreat. Should he succeed most of their force will be captured.

MURFREESBORO, 28.—The rebels are reported as having made important movements in our front, materially changing the situation. Whether this is in reply to our movements on McMinnville, or that the rebels are weary of waiting for us to advance is not known. It is known that Bragg reinforced by one brigade from Mobile. A Mississippi regiment from Vicksburg has been sent back from Chattanooga. A large force has reinforced Manchester to strengthen the right. Gen Johnson is reported to have moved his headquarters to Shelbyville. One division is at Gray's Gap, twelve miles from Murfreesboro on the Shelbyville and Lynnwood road. Two brigades are at Bellbuckle, while a third force is said to have been at Dottle Pike for some days. It is believed in rebel camps that if Rosecrans does not advance Bragg will make an attack. On good authority it is stated that Bragg has 70,000 men.

A late Richmond Enquirer, speaking of affairs in South Carolina, says there are indications of the Yankees moving, and it is supposed their intention is to make a raid in the vicinity of Cheraw, probably to attempt to destroy the railroad between Charleston and Savannah.

A Fredericksburg correspondent of the Dispatch, of the 26th writes, we are all quiet, but expectant, hopeful and confident.

The same paper has a telegram which says the Federals are advancing to Jackson, Miss, by the Meridian road. They had destroyed a bridge on the river.

WASHINGTON, April 29th.—The Navy Department has received a letter from Rear Admiral Porter, dated April 7th, giving an account of running the batteries. It adds nothing but what has been already published.—Porter says that an examination of the Indianola shows that she is much shattered. The rebels carried off her two nine inch guns.—One eleven inch gun was bursted, and the other lies alongside in nine feet water.

NEW YORK, April 29th.—The steamer New York with dates from Southampton to the 15th, has arrived.

The Virginia which was launched on the Clyde for the Confederates, is reported in the British Channel, full of warlike stores and sailing westward immediately. She is described as of the best strength, is very fast, and is armed with ten heavy guns and two Whitworth 68 pound pivot guns.

Nothing important had occurred in Parliament.

An understanding has been established between three countries—France, Great Britain and Austria, for acting in concert towards Russia.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Washington Intelligencer of Tuesday announces that Gen Hooker commenced a forward movement on Monday. Heavy masses of artillery and other troops were crossing the Rappahannock.

The Tribune says the 7th and 11th corps and the cavalry corps took the lead.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—R B Swain has filed his bond and taken possession of the Mint.

George Gorham, of Marysville is appointed Clerk to Judge Field.

Mr Crocker, of Sacramento, who went East to obtain McAllister's place, will be appointed one of the Supreme Judges to hold the vacancy about to be made by Judge Field's resignation.

The steamer Sierra Nevada arrived here this morning from the North. The ship Orion 130 days from Philadelphia, also arrived.

SACRAMENTO, April 29.—Frederick Cook, Superintendent of the Overland Mail Company, who was thrown from a carriage yesterday, expired this afternoon. He was from Cincinnati, where he leaves a wife.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business for the past several days has been quiet with a slight decline. We quote the following cases from the docket of yesterday:

John Harrison for selling liquor without license; found guilty and fined $25 00 and costs; paid and discharged.

John Young found guilty of stealing clothing and blankets from Clinton's Switzer; sentenced to three months imprisonment in county jail.

Charles Rhodes, arraigned for [illegible] disorderly conduct, fined $10 and costs.

SUDDEN DEATH.—It is with sorrow that we have to chronicle the sudden death of our esteemed fellow-townsman Mr. James Levy, merchant on First street. Mr. Levy was apparently in excellent health at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and while engaged in tacking down a carpet at his home, he was suddenly taken with an apoplectic fit and expired before medical assistance could be procured. He leaves a wife and a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely death.

SPECIAL ELECTION.—At a regular meeting of Protection Company, No. 4, held last night at their Engine Room, the following gentlemen were chosen to fill offices made vacant by resignation: 1st Assistant Foreman, D. J. [illegible]ey, vice J. H. Rochford. Delegates A. Rosenheim, and J. W. Sutton vice F. W. Bell, and J. H. Rochford, resigned.

TEN NIGHTS IN A BAR ROOM.—This great moral drama was repeated last night at the Willamette Theatre, before an immense audience, and we can only say that Miss Mitchell, Mr. Waldron, B. S. Mortimer, and all others of this excellent theatrical troupe, not forgetting Miss Minnie Gillespie, won the admiration and uproarious applause of every one who witness this favorite play.

In consequence of the unusual success of this magnificent drama, it will be repeated again to-night, when all those who have not had a chance to see it should certainly attend.

AUCTION SALE.—M. Mansfield sells this day, at his Auction Rooms, the largest [illegible] assorted merchandise ever offered at auction in this city. It would be well for country merchants and dealers to attend this sale. See advertisement.

From Upper Columbia

We take the following from the Dalles Journal, of yesterday morning:

A company of prospectors, five in number, left Canyon City a week ago, were attacked by a band of Indians the next morning, about [illegible] miles from the South Fork of John Days river. They were all asleep when the attack was made. Three of them succeeded in making their escape, all more or less wounded by balls and arrows; the other two are supposed to have been killed. The names of the persons who escaped are Rutherford and Marcel, from California, and Vincent Rand of Portland. The men supposed killed are Hiram Talcot of California, and William Gallagher of Salem. A party of nineteen or twenty went out from Canyon City in pursuit of the Indians.

The body of Frank Gallagher, of Portland, was found a short distance from Cherry Creek last Wednesday. The body presented every appearance of a most atrocious murder having been committed. He had been shot through the head with a pistol ball, and robbed of everything but a portion of his clothing. The murder is believed to have been committed by one [illegible], with whom Gallagher had been in company on his way from Canyon City to Dalles. Gallagher leaves a young wife and child and other relatives in Portland to mourn his untimely death. It is believed the man has been arrested before this time.

Mr. Perry, of Portland, informs the editor of the Journal, that a rumor had reached Walla Walla just previous to his departure from that place, to the effect that one hundred and forty miners, who had gone to new diggings some distance beyond Placerville in the Boise country, had been massacred by the Indians. Nothing definite, however, was learned about the truth of the report. Business at Walla Walla, he represents as quite dull at present, and much sickness prevailing.

Storage. The Fire-Proof Stone Warehouse, opposite the [illegible] House, is the only building not made of wood at the Dalles, where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other buildings that take goods on storage are wooden buildings in exposed parts of the town liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1.00 per ton, yet the public will fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe toothache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time. It will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as if it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or gall upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea [illegible] and heal the sore in a short time.

Gen. A. J. Smith.

This officer who was on duty in the Regular Army in this State for many years, and was one of the Commission to audit the Oregon War Claim, is now in command of a division of Gen. Grant's army of the Mississippi A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, gives the following report of his mode of dealing with negligent officers under him, which our readers who know him will recognize as just his style The incident occured on board the steamer which was at the time the General's headquarters

On our passage down from Arkansas Post to Young's Point, after our glorious victory at the former place, we had on board with us (for transportation) three companies of the —th Illinois Volunteers Now it happened that these men had rather neglected to clean their guns, which the sharp eye of the old veteran soon discovered It was in the morning of our third day out, the wind was blowing terribly, and the weather unusually cold, rendering it very unpleasant to remain long on the hurricane roof, that the General came rushing into the cabin where nearly all the officers were comfortably seated around a warm stove

"Captain," exclaimed the General, in no very mild tone, addressing himself to the commander of one of the aforesaid companies, "have you had an inspection of arms this morning?"

"No, General," timidly replied the Captain, "I have not."

"Have you held an inspection of your company at any time since the battle of Arkansas Post, sir," sharply asked the General

"No, sir, the weather has been so unpleasant, and I thought I would let my men rest awhile," hesitatingly replied the Captain, already nervous, through fear that something disagreeable was about to turn up

"You thought you'd let them rest awhile? Indeed! The d—l you did! Who pays you, sir, for permitting your men to lay and rot in idleness, while such important duties remain unattended to? What kind of condition are your arms in, now, to defend this boat or even the lives of your own men, in case we should be attacked by the enemy this moment? What the d—l are you in the service for, if you thus neglect your most important duty?" fairly yelled the old General. And then starting menacingly toward the quaking Captain —said he imperatively "Mount, sir! on that roof this moment, and call your men instantly into line, that I may examine their arms"

"And you," resumed he, turning and addressing the Lieutenants, who commanded the other companies, "are fully as delinquent as the Captain. Sirs! I must see your men in line within ten minutes."

It is scarcely necessary to state that the officers in question made the best of their time in drumming up their men, whom they found scattered in all parts of the boat Finally, however, the companies referred to, were duly paraded on the "hurricane," an abridged form of inspection was gone through with—The General finding their arms in bad condition, very naturally inflicted some severe talk, threatening condign punishment in case such neglect should be repeated

But during the time in which one of these companies was falling in, which operation was not executed with that degree of promptness on the part of the rank and file, satisfactory to the Lieutenant commanding, that officer called out in a most imploring strain—"Fall in, gentlemen! Fall in lively, gentlemen!" That application of the "gentlemen" fell upon the ear of General Smith, who, turning quickly around, hastily inquired, "Are you the Lieutenant in command of that company, sir?" addressing the individual who had given the command in such a polite manner.

"Yes, sir," replied the trembling subaltern

"Then, who the d—l are you calling gentlemen?" cried the General. "I am an old soldier," continued he, approaching and looking more earnestly at the Lieutenant, "but I must confess, sir, that I never before heard of the rank of gentleman in the army" Soldiers, sir, are ALL supposed to be gentlemen, of course; but hereafter, sir, when you address soldiers, remember to say soldiers, or men, let us have no more of this 'bowing and scraping,' where it is your duty to command"—Then, turning upon his heel, his eyes snapping with impatience, the old General gave vent in the following words "Gentlemen! gentlemen, forsooth! and rusty guns! Umph! That's good! But that is the way it goes in our army, now-a-days. Each man expects to run for some civil office, on his return from the war, and so great is his fear of giving offense to his men, and thus injure his popularity, that he permits them to neglect their most important duties, and, to 'trump all,' he has to address his command with the word 'gentlemen' prefixed, in order to be obeyed! Alas! what militia!"

General Smith, of course, is not popular with some volunteer officers. It is scarcely necessary to tell you why. The presence of a few more officers of his style in our army, however, would prove a blessing, as they would perhaps "make a business" of doing their duty, and compelling all under their command to do likewise

THE PRESIDENT'S LAST JOKE—Recently, Secretary Chase of the Treasury Department, found upon a desk in his office what at first appeared to be a picture of an "infernal machine," looking very much like a goose, but which on closer examination proved to be a drawing of an ingenious invention for turning gold eagles into "greenbacks," with the Secretary himself operating it, and slowly feeding it with "yaller boys" at one end, while the government currency came out at the other end, flying about like the leaves of autumn. While he was examining it, the President came in, as he daily does, for consultation. Mr. Chase handed him the drawing, and as the roguish eye of our Chief Magistrate recognized the likeness of the Secretary, he exclaimed—

"Capital joke, isn't it, Mr. Chase?"

"A joke," said the irate financier, "I'd give a thousand dollars to know who left it here."

"Oh, no," responded Mr Lincoln, "you would hardly do that?"

"Yes I would," asserted the Secretary.

"Would you, though?" inquired the President, with that deliberate manner that characterizes him when he is really in earnest—"Well, which end would you pay from?"

The answer is not recorded

WORLD OF PURE SPIRITS—An inveterate dram drinker, being told that the cholera with which he was attacked was incurable, and that he would speedily be removed to a world of pure spirits, replied, "Well that's a comfort at all events, for its very difficult to get any in this world"

A chap being asked to explain the paradox of how it was possible for so lazy a man to attain so much education, answered—I didn't—at tain—I just heard it—here—and—there—and—was too lazy to forget it."

"Husband, I must have some change to day"

"Well, stay at home and take care of the children—that will be change enough, anyhow."

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits less $600; [illegible] derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes hired help Rents Drayage &c, necessary to carry on his business, but no farmer merchant mechanic or any person has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862 so that on the evening of December 31st 1862 everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks interest, &c (they having already paid the income tax) are not again taxed It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600

A man may outside of his business spend [illegible] more than his profits in the business nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600 And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed though personal or family expenses consume it all

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessed on the first day of May 1863 and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863 And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

From Rev J Newton Brown D D, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining, I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

J NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters' will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone, restored to life
